ROBERTSON BATHWARE

BORN FROM A MIX OF GLOBAL EXPERIENCE AND LOCAL KNOWLEDGE

Two generations have grown the Robertson brand over its 35-year history. It is still proudly New Zealand and family owned by Max and Debbie Robertson, who founded Robertson Bathware in 1987. They've been joined over the years by son James, Sales Manager and daughter Kirsten, who has an eye for product design.

Since its earliest years, the company has followed a set of rigorous guidelines: always make the most of our team, both internationally and here in New Zealand; be innovative; create and supply products that are beautiful to look at, and simple and effective to operate; and constantly develop technology and sustainable solutions to guarantee the quality of the products, services and consulting we provide.

We develop our products for the New Zealand market, but we search every corner of the world for inspiration and ways to improve and build on the product line. It might be the latest design trends from the Cersaie trade show in Bologna, Italy; the technical innovations found at ISH Germany; or the Kiwi ingenuity and superior craftsmanship we employ here on our own doorstep. It's all brought to the table to deliver a promise of breath taking design and guaranteed quality, backed by industry-leading service and support to help realise the perfect design.
