

SAMUEL HEATH BASIN BOTTLE TRAP - CHROME

SHV193.CP
POA

SAMUEL HEATH
for a life less ordinary

The Samuel Heath Basin Bottle Trap is a beautifully crafted plumbing fixture that combines style and function. Made in England, this bottle trap is handcrafted with meticulous attention to detail, ensuring exceptional quality. Samuel Heath is well-known for its luxurious, high-end plumbing solutions, and this bottle trap is no exception.

It's available in a range of premium finishes, so you can choose the perfect one to match your bathroom's aesthetic. Whether you prefer a sleek polished chrome or a modern matte black finish, Samuel Heath offers stylish options that will elevate your space.

Handcrafted for durability, this bottle trap is built to last, making it a reliable addition to any bathroom. It's designed to not only serve as a practical part of your plumbing system but also to enhance the overall look and feel of your bathroom.

Ideal for both residential and light commercial settings, the Samuel Heath Basin Bottle Trap is a great choice for those who appreciate quality and elegance. Its timeless design and superior craftsmanship make it a standout feature in any bathroom. Whether you're renovating or designing from scratch, this bottle trap brings both luxury and practicality to your space.